

2010 CAMP FOX LEA SOCIAL SCHEDULE

WEEK LONG COLOR WAR

This year, two separate color war champions will be declared. Color war will be tabulated through the camp show and the first winner will be named on July 27, 2010. Points will start clean for the Plain Brown Wrapper Show and the second winner will be named on August 1, 2010. Good luck to all!

Farms will be assigned to four separate teams: yellow team, red team, blue team, & green team. Each team will have a general in charge. Each team member will be issued a color coded pin to be worn for the week. Must have pin for points to count. Pin to be worn on right hand outside shirt sleeve. Points will be accumulated for certain classes and contests. An extra 5 points to the first person in each show ring in the morning. Entries close July 10, 2010: all entries rec'd by closing date will receive a 5 bonus points for your color war team. Stall reservations need to be made by July 10, 2010. Stall fees are non-refundable after July 10, 2010 due to ordering portable stalls.

Two separate color war contests will take place again this year. At the end of Camp and also Plain Brown Wrapper, the team with the most points will be declared color war champions with an award to remember the glory. Your camp director, Krystal Kuhl, with the help of Leanne Gamboa will be assigning teams on July 18, 2010. Leanne will be available in the show office on that day. Your camp director, Krystal, will organize the times for the different activities and games. A dry erase board will be on the pavilion showing what times the events will take place. If you are interested in participating in certain games please sign up with Krystal. Krystal will also be available on the pavilion all show mornings to answer questions and start organizing those days' activities.
